

Justin D. Krogman

Groningen

Mobile: +31 6 42905483

Email: jkrogman23@gmail.com

LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/justin-krogman/>

Portfolio: <https://justinkrogman.com/>

JOB OBJECTIVE

Game Designer working at an indie or AAA game studio in Europe or North America

EDUCATION

August 2019 – Current

Hanze UAS

Groningen, NL

- Completion of first three years of Communication and Multimedia Design, Game Design program
- Completion of Minor in Medialism with a focus on visual communication and storytelling
- Completion of internship at Dutch publishing studio Indietopia
- Focus on gameplay, level, systems, and mechanics design for serious and entertainment games
- Ability to read and write in CSS, HTML, and Blueprint programming languages
- Understanding of Agile and Scrum management systems

October 2014 – December 2018

SAIT Polytechnic

Calgary, AB

- Completion of Electrical Apprenticeship Program – Fully Certified Red Seal Journeyman Electrician

September 2009 – June 2013

Bowness High School

Calgary, AB

- Completion of Alberta High School Diploma
- Completion of the CSTS Construction Safety Program
- Focus in fine arts and design
- Won the Imperial Oil Awards for Honours, Top Marks, and Continuous Improvement in Math 30-3

EXPERIENCE

May 2017 – June 2018

Crestview Electric

Calgary, AB

Electrical Apprentice - 3rd Year – 4th Year

- Experience with installation and maintenance of:
 - Main power, emergency power, door security, and distribution systems for new educational facilities
 - Door security systems involving door contacts, electrical strikes, door actuators, magnetic and hydraulic door hold handicap operated systems
 - Electrical conduit, boxes, and wiring in masonry brick for various electrical systems
 - Cad welding/ Exothermic welding for commercial grounding systems
 - Usage of scissor lifts and fall arrest systems to install electrical systems and equipment from heights
 - Training apprentices in the installation of electrical equipments and systems, electrical theory, usage of electrical tools and equipment, and blueprint reading skills for jobsite applications

- Usage of electrical blueprints and manufacturer specification sheets to create and direct daily work load and tasks for apprentices to complete electrical installations for various systems

July 2013 –October 2016

Custom Electric Ltd

Calgary, AB

Electrical Apprentice - 1st Year – 3rd Year

- Experience with installation and maintenance of:
 - Wiring/circuitry for commercial buildings including emergency power and temporary power systems, and ensured the required safety and quality assurance protocols were met consistently
 - Distribution for commercial buildings, including transformers, panels, and electrical vaults
 - Fire alarm systems for commercial buildings, including fire alarm verification and troubleshooting of completed systems to repair faulty wiring
 - Reading and interpreting electrical, mechanical, and architectural blueprints and drawings as well as electrical code specifications to complete electrical installations
 - Electrical conduit pipe cutting, threading, and bending in slab, interior, and underground environments
 - Heat trace systems

OTHER SKILLS

- Manual dexterity with all electrical tools and hand tools
- Able to comprehend complex systems and procedures
- Able to handle multiple details and instructions simultaneously
- Reliable, accurate, punctual and steady worker with good communication skills
- Team-oriented and personable
- Analytical and observant
- Thorough understanding of video games industry and game genres
- Affinity for new game development technologies
- Ability to read and write in CSS, HTML, JavaScript, and C# programming languages
- Dual Canadian-German Citizen

INTERESTS AND ACTIVITIES

- Computer graphics
- Electronics
- Fencing
- Hiking
- Reading
- Biking
- Fishing
- Snowboarding
- Video games

References are available on request